

Martin heard about how the Catholic church didn't tell people this great news of God's plan. They taught other things instead, and one of the things they taught was that if you paid them lots of money, God might be nice to you, and let you into heaven.

But Martin knew God's Word did not teach that. Martin knew that he had to say something about this! So Martin wrote his 95 Theses. He told the Catholic church how they weren't teaching God's Word.
