

As Martin studied the Bible, Martin found that God's Word does not ask us to be good on our own. We all do bad things, sin, and this keeps us from God. God hates sin, and we can never do enough good to clean up our sinful hearts.

